

Suzanne Scott Family Housing

The best possible recovery requires more than the commitment of the client—it requires the combined effort and dedicated support of the entire family unit. These families travel from across the country for QLI’s rehabilitation services, making it our priority to keep loved ones close, connected, and comfortable. Suzanne Scott Family Housing at QLI answers that need. A two-level, 13,000-square-foot “home away from home,” QLI’s accommodations offer the space to house up to 14 families with a wealth of lodging options and amenities. Amenities include:

- Immediate proximity and ease of access to QLI’s two campuses
- 8 hotel-style rooms with two queen-size beds each
- 4 one bedroom apartments with one queen-size bed, kitchen, dining room and living area
- 2 “flex” rooms with one queen-size bed that can be opened to expand apartments
- Full, private bathrooms for each residence
- Access to communal entertainment room and outdoor lounge spaces
- Fully equipped kitchen including secure storage space for each guest
- 2 on-site laundry facilities

Frequently Asked Questions

Is there a cost?

Donation is suggested depending on room size and length of stay. Donations help fund the operational costs of the house and general programs at QLI. However, we are committed to supporting all families, regardless of ability to contribute.

How long can I stay?

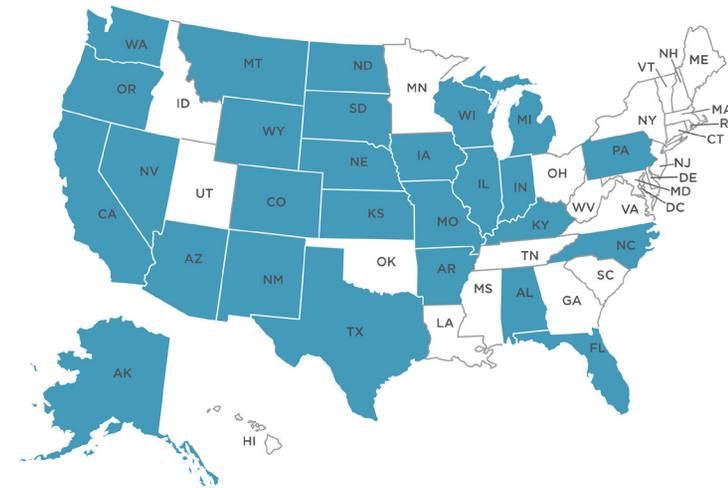

Hotel-style rooms are available for stays up to 14 days. Apartments are available for greater than 2 week stays and are dependent on apartment wait list. Stays are subject to availability.

Are pets welcome?

Pets are not allowed on the Suzanne Scott Family Housing at QLI property. Exceptions may be made for licensed service pets.

Is tobacco/alcohol/vaping permitted?

Tobacco, alcohol, and vaping are not permitted at Suzanne Scott Family Housing or anywhere on the QLI campus.

Since opening in August 2016, Suzanne Scott Family Housing at QLI has served families from across the country.

For further questions or to inquire on availability, please contact Josie Godek, the Suzanne Scott Family Housing Coordinator.

Josie Godek

Family Housing Coordinator

P: (402) 573-3750

F: (402) 573-2170

jgodek@QLIomaha.com